When teachers build upon and continually renew their passion for education they are better poised to thrive in long successful careers. Using brain science to improve math instruction there is a clear gap between what research has shown to work in teaching math and what happens in schools.

In the second edition of her critically acclaimed book, The Dreamkeepers, Gloria Ladson-Billings revisits the eight teachers who were profiled in the first edition and introduces us to new teachers who are current exemplars of good teaching. She shows that culturally relevant teaching is not a matter of race, gender, or teaching style.

Bianca Jagger was born Bianca Pérez Mora Macias May 2, 1945 in Managua, Nicaragua to a successful import export merchant father and housewife mother. Bianca received a scholarship to study at the Paris Institute of Political Studies in France under the influence of Mahatma Gandhi. His eastern teachers need to take on new roles in which they become a source of knowledge and a facilitator of knowledge in the classroom. In this role the teacher is also viewed as a learner in the classroom.
